Past performances are not indicative of future performances. Investment involves various risks, including but not limit to market, exchange rate, volatility, liquidity, credit/counterparty, assessment degradation, regulatory and political areas. The risk of loss in securities, leveraged foreign exchange, futures, options and other derivatives trading can be substantial and even in excess of cash and any other assets deposited as collateral. You should therefore understand the risks, characteristics and restrictions of the investment products, and judge whether it is suitable for your financial situation, investment objective and risk tolerance before making any investment decisions. You should carefully read the investment fund offering documentation for detailed product information and risk factors prior to making any investment.

If you have any doubt on this material or any offering documentation, you should seek independent professional advice.
